SCOPE OF THE POLICY

a. This policy will cover the roles and responsibilities of Equitas Small Finance Bank (ESFB or “ Bank”) in creating a structured system to ensure the Redressal mechanism to be ‘just’ fair’ and ‘permissible’ within the given framework of rules and regulations.

b. This policy enumerates the rights of customers to be completely aware of the avenues to escalate their complaints/grievances within the organization. and about their rights to opt for alternative remedies, if they are not satisfied with the response or resolution provided by the Bank to their complaints

c. This policy lists the obligations of the Bank towards observing the principles of Grievance Redressal.

ESFB POLICY FRAMEWORK

2.1 PRINCIPLES OF GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

The Bank's policy on Grievance Redressal follows the under noted principles.

1. Customers be treated fairly at all times
2. The Bank employees will work in good faith and without prejudice to the Interests of the customer.
3. Complaints raised by customers are dealt with courteously and on time
4. Bank will deal with all complaints efficiently and fairly
5. Customers are completely informed of avenues to escalate their complaints/grievances within the organization and their rights to alternative remedies, if they are not satisfied with the response provided by the Bank to their complaints.

2.1.1 CUSTOMER COMPLAINTS

Customer Complaints arise due to

1. Inadequacy of the functions/ arrangements made available to the customers
2. Gaps in standards of services expected Vs actual services rendered.
3. Attitudinal aspects in dealing with customers.

The customer has full right to register his/her complaint if he/she is not satisfied with the services provided by the Bank. Customer can give his/her complaint in writing, orally, through Bank's website or over telephone. If customer complaint is not resolved within 30 days of making a complaint or if he/she is not satisfied with the solution provided by the Bank, he/she can approach Banking Ombudsman with his/her complaint or pursue other legal avenues available for grievance redressal.

2.2 INTERNAL MACHINERY TO HANDLE CUSTOMER COMPLAINTS/ GRIEVANCES

2.2.1 Customer Service Committee of the Board

The Customer Service Committee of the Board will be responsible for formulation of a Comprehensive Customer Grievance handling system, to provide excellent customer service. The Committee will also examine issues pertaining to the quality of customer service rendered. This Committee will also review the functioning of Standing Committee on Customer Service.

2.2.2 Standing Committee on Customer Service

The Standing Committee on Customer Service will be chaired by the Managing Director of the Bank. Besides two to three senior executives of the Bank, the committee will also have two eminent non-executives drawn from the public as members. The committee will have the following functions.

1. Evaluate feedback on quality of customer service received from various quarters like customer service meetings held at branches, standing committee meetings and feedback / reviews from online channels of the bank.
2. The Committee will seek feedback from the Nodal Officers on compliance with regulatory guidelines related to customer service and grievance handling procedures.
3. The Committee will also consider unresolved complaints/grievances referred by functional heads responsible for redressal, and offer their advice.
4. The Committee will submit its report to the Customer Service Committee of the Board at quarterly intervals.

2.2.3 Nodal Officer and other designated officials to handle complaints and grievances

The Nodal Officer will be responsible for the implementation of customer service and complaint handling for the entire Bank. The Nodal officers at Head office and at Zonal/Regional offices to handle complaint/grievances in respect of branches falling under their control are given below.

Head Office: Head Customer Service

Zonal / Regional Office: Zonal Head

The name and contact details of Nodal officer (s) will be displayed on branch notice boards

2.2.4 The bank has implemented the Internal Ombudsman Scheme as per extant guidelines of RBI.

The Internal Ombudsman (IO) will be an independent authority, who is responsible for reviewing complaints that are partly or wholly rejected by the Bank. This is to strengthen the internal grievance redressal system and to ensure that the complaints of customers are redressed at the highest level of the bank's grievance redressal mechanism; and to minimize the need for the customer to approach other forums for redressal.

The IO will furnish reports on his/her activities to the Customer Service Committee of the Board at quarterly intervals. The Bank will also periodically report to RBI as per requirements stated in the scheme.

2.3 MANDATORY DISPLAY REQUIREMENTS

In each branch of the Bank, the following will be displayed

1. Procedure for receiving complaints and suggestions from customers
2. The name, address and contact number of Nodal Officer(s)
3. Contact details of Banking Ombudsman of the area.
4. Code of Bank's Commitments to Customers/Fair Practice code
5. Bank's Toll Free Number(s)

2.4 RESOLUTION OF GRIEVANCES

2.4.1 Branch Manager is responsible for the resolution of complaints/grievances in respect of customer service by the branch. He / She will be responsible for ensuring closure of all complaints received at the branches. It is his/her foremost duty to see that the complaints are resolved completely to the customer's satisfaction and if the customer is not satisfied, then he/she will be provided with alternate avenues to escalate the issue. If the branch manager feels that it is not possible at his/her level to solve the complaint, he/she will refer the case to Zonal Office/Nodal Officer for guidance. Similarly, if Zonal office/Nodal Officer finds that, they are not able to solve the complaint; such cases will be referred to the Principal Nodal Officer at Head office.

All complaints will be entered in the centralized system and it will be accessible to all line officials including the top management for initiation of immediate remedial action for redressal. The comments of the top management will be available to all the relevant staff.

An enquiry/query will not be treated as a complaint. However, if a query is not responded properly it may become a complaint.

2.4.2 Time frame

Complaint received will be analyzed from all possible angles. The complainant can lodge complaints through multiple channels, viz. phone banking, Bank's Website, e-mails, letters and complaint form at branch level.

Communication of Bank's stand on any complaint raised by a customer is a vital requirement. Complaints received will be acknowledged promptly and the customer will be informed on the approximate time of resolution from the Bank.

All efforts will be made to resolve each complaint received by the Bank within the timeframe fixed internally. All pending complaints beyond Turnaround Time (TAT) will be reported to the Head Office at monthly intervals.

However, where the Bank is dependent to get information from sources outside the Bank, such as other banks, agencies that are not under contractual obligation to the Bank etc., the Turnaround Time will commence from the time, other Banks or agencies have given their feedback to the Bank on the queries raised.

The table below states the detailed timelines.

Grievance Redressal Timelines
Category of Grievances	Turn Around Time
Acknowledgement to be sent within 24 hours
Grievances that can be directly resolved by the Grievance Redressal team	3 working days maximum
Grievances requiring investigations related to Field/Sales/Mis selling of products etc	7 working days maximum
Grievances related to external Agencies/Other banks/ Third party products/ Services	Upto 15 working days
Grievances which require technology changes to resolve or which requires investigations related to suspected fraudulent activities / malpractices or which involves recovery of dues etc..	Upto 30 days

If the customer's complaint is not resolved within 30 days or the customer is not satisfied by the resolution provided by the Bank, he / she can appeal to the Banking Ombudsman, RBI.

2.5 INTERACTION WITH CUSTOMERS

The Bank believes that customer's expectation/requirement/grievances can be better addressed through personal interaction by Bank's staff with customers. To ensure customer connect, structured Customer visits are planned by the bank with customers to gather their feedback/suggestions for improvement in customer service. Many of the customer complaints arise due to their lack of awareness about Bank services; regular interactions with the bank will help the customers appreciate Banking services better. As for the Bank, the feedback from customers will be a valuable input for revisiting its product and services to meet customer requirements/ expectations.

To this effect, the concept of Welcome Calls for New to Bank (NTB) customers has been introduced. As part of this initiative, NTB customers are called to welcome them and express our gratitude to him/her, for having chosen us as his/her banking partner. This practice helps ascertain their experience in starting a new relationship with the bank. It also serves as an opportunity for ESNB to ascertain its current service levels.

2.6 SENSITIZING OPERATING STAFF ON HANDLING COMPLAINTS

Staffs will be trained adequately for handling complaints/grievances. Staffs will be trained to address to a customer complaint/grievances with utmost courtesy and respect .The soft skills required for handling irate customers will be an integral part of the staff training programs. It will be the responsibility of the Nodal Officer to ensure that the internal mechanism for handling complaints / grievances smoothly and efficiently is established at all levels. The Nodal Officer will give feedback on training needs of staffs at the appropriate level to the HR department.

2.7 DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS AND IMPROVING CUSTOMER RELATIONS

2.7.1 Complaints/suggestions box

Complaints/suggestions box will be provided at each branch of the Bank. Further, at every branch of the Bank a notice will be displayed requesting the customers to meet the branch manager if their grievances remain unaddressed.

2.7.2 Complaint Book /Register

Complaint book with perforated copies will be made available in the branches, so designed as to instantly provide an acknowledgement to the customers and an intimation to the Controlling Office.

Branches will maintain a separate complaints register in the prescribed format given for entering all the complaints/grievances received by them directly or through other channels from customers.

The complaint register maintained by branches will be scrutinized by the concerned Regional Manager during his periodical visit to the branches and his observations / comments will be recorded in the relative visit reports.

Instead of manual registers as above, the Branches may also maintain such registers in electronic form.

2.7.3 Complaint Form

Complaint form, along with the name of the Nodal Officer for complaint redressal, will be made available in the homepage of the bank website itself to facilitate complaint submission by customers. The complaint form will also indicate that the first point for redressal of complaints is the Bank itself and that complainants may approach the Banking Ombudsman only if the complaint is not resolved at the Bank level within a month.

Similar information will be displayed in the boards put up in all the bank branches to indicate the name and address of the Banking Ombudsman. In addition, the name, address and telephone numbers of the Controlling Authority of the bank to whom complaints can be addressed will also be given prominently

2.7.4 Analysis and Disclosure of Complaints

2.7.4.1 The Statement of complaints and its analysis and unimplemented awards of the Banking Ombudsman will be disclosed along with the financial results as per the recommendation of The Committee on Procedures and Performance Audit on Public Services (CPPAPS).

The high severity complaints will be analyzed to remedy the causes and to avoid recurrence of complaints of similar nature in future.

The Customer Service Committee will place a statement of complaints before the Board along with an analysis of the complaints received. The complaints will be analyzed

- a. To identify customer service areas in which the complaints are frequently received;
- b. To identify frequent sources of complaint;
- c. To identify systemic deficiencies; and
